MINISTRY LIFT OCT 2014

What environment are we building?

"The gospel of Christ says we are far more flawed and sinful than we ever dared to imagine, but we are far more loved and accepted than we ever dared to hope."— Tim Keller

Leading out of BROKENNESS

MINISTRY LIFT OCT 2014

God develops leaders over a lifetime

- God uniquely wires us and uses people, events, and circumstances to shape us.

Personal Timeline

Turning Points - Entrustments

A point in time where/when

- someone intervenes
- a decision is made that alters your direction
- key event(s) occurs
- patterns begin - patterns end
- major milestones-life experiences

Woundings

In the Movie SHADOWLANDS, C.S. Lewis, after he had lost his wife Joy to cancer, says to his brother: "Reality is a brutal teacher. But you learn, my God you learn."

- Wounds earliest are deepest
- Wounds can become a pattern, and/or produce a theme!
- Re-occurring wounds often leave scars that deaden the response... vision-less
 - death to the dream...
 - silence to the passion...
 - loss/doubt of our uniqueness
 - potential result: We become embittered, without hope... fearing failure.

Process Items

Process Item	Definition	Examples
Negative Preparation (NP)	Special experiences or conflicts that focus and free leaders for the next stage of development.	Character challenge, ministry crisis, grass is greener syndrome.
Life Crisis (LC)	Special intense situations of pressure in human experiences that test and teach dependence.	Health, finances, personalities, church splits, ministry attack.
Ministry Conflict (MC)	Ministry conflicts that are used to help shape ministry philosophy and values.	People struggles, organizational restructuring, facing change.
Leadership Backlash (LB)	Ramifications of a decision taken by a leader.	Perseverance, clarity of vision, hurts, relational conflicts, faith challenge.
Isolation (I)	The setting aside of a leader from normal ministry involvement to hear from God in a deeper way.	Sickness, education, self-renewal, ending of ministry, termination.
